Do you long to love and be loved authentically?
Are you ready to transform your life and your love relationship?
Do you want to stop playing games and love from an open and powerful heart?

"Who's Running Your Life?"* is a simple, straight forward approach to reclaim your personal power and explore enlightenment. This program offers insights and specific tools as you transcend your past to live life filled with peace, joy, and purpose. From that place of authentic power, you are ready to embrace authentic love and intimacy with your beloved.

Essie Silvers is the creator of the Who's Running Your Life? program--offering practical spirit-led consulting services--meeting you where you are and helping transcend the wounds of the past and fears of the future to reclaim your innate power and connect to your Divine wisdom.

Curt Silvers is an avid enthusiast of life and love, offering a powerful perspective and passion for life. Not willing to accept mere survival, he has transcended life-threatening challenges to live authentically and with great passion.

After experiencing their own failed marriages before meeting, Essie and Curt actively employ these principals in their 21-year relationship. They have overcome extreme hardship and life-altering challenges--resulting in an enduring and authentic love.
